4. [redacted] Called Paul Summitt, Senate Judiciary Subcommittee on Criminal Laws and Procedures staff, and advised him that our report to Chairman John L. McClellan (D., Ark.) commenting on the Committee Print of S. 1, which codifies the criminal laws, would be delivered to him today. He requested that a copy by handcarried to Karen Skrivseth, Justice, who is clearing all reports for the Committee. I briefed him general on our report and offered to discuss further the effects of section 1124 on unauthorized disclosures upon the Agency and our own legislation for protectir intelligence sources and methods. Summitt feels certain that the section will be struck or greatly weakened when the bill is considered by the Senate in the next session. According to Summitt, the bill will be reported out without hearings and calendared for floor vote at an early date.

25X1 6. [redacted] Herb Roback, Staff Director, House Government Operations Committee, called to get some information for the Congressional Research Service on the titles of the four oversight Subcommittee of Congress, the exact name of PFIAB, and the make up of the 40 Committee which I gave him. He also asked for the Public Law number of the Foreign Assistance Act (P.L. 94-559).

25X1 7. [redacted] Ed Braswell, Chief Counsel, Senate Armed Services Committee, called and said he had received a query from Loyd Hackler, Administrative Assistant to Senator Lloyd Bentsen, concerning 25X1A [redacted] a former Agency employee. Braswell wanted to know 25X1A generally what kind of work [redacted] did while here. I told him I would find out and let him know.

25X1 8. [redacted] Jack Ticer, Senate Armed Services Committee staff, called and asked if we could get the Committee a copy or two of the Agee book. I said I would look into this and see what we could do. Ticer asked if we would check to see if the tapes of the 12 September 1974 transcript of the DCI's appearance before the Committee are still available. I told him we would check.
